

You only need one set of numbered counters to do these puzzles.

You will have to take the counters off each triangle as you go on to the next one.

This last triangle puzzle has more than one answer.

How many can you find, just using one set of numbers?

How can you tell if you have found them all?